CENT AUCTION

The St Mary's Parish Cent Auction was held last Saturday with 100 people attending and $3682.30 being raised for the painting of the church and the Parish hall.

Special thanks to Karen and Mike Barrett who were the main organisers and who did an enormous amount of work to make this event happen and to Karen and Vicki Jensen who did an amazing job preparing all the prizes that were won on the day! Thanks also to Kingaroy RSL for their generous donation of gift vouchers and the loan of the tables and chairs we used. Our thanks also to Mandy Sullivan who did a great job as MC on the day! We also would like to thank those people who provided the delicious afternoon tea and to those parishioners from Kingaroy and Nanango who donated items and cash and who also helped out on the day! Your support was very much appreciated in making this such a successful event!

ST PAT'S NANANGO - Prue Clarke, APRE

During Volunteer Week, our students reflected on the important role volunteers play in our school community. They recognised that volunteers help make our school a welcoming and caring place for all, and shared their gratitude for the many ways volunteers support our community. We thank our volunteers for their time, dedication, and generosity. You inspire our students to grow in compassion and service each day.
